

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name	Prof. Dr. Lambert Grosskopf LL.M.Eur.
Educational and Professional Qualifications	After graduating in jurisprudence and obtaining a postgraduate degree in European and International Law, Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf, a qualified lawyer, became a lecturer in copyright and media law as well as IT-law at the University of Bremen and at the Bremen University of Applied Sciences. Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is a "Certified Lawyer for Information Technology Law (IT-Law)" and a "Certified Lawyer for Copyright and Media Law" and acts as a accredited IT-conciliator for the German Society for Law and Computer Science (DGRI). Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is a accredited expert for data protection.
Languages	German (native language), English
Experience with respect to	Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf acted as an attorney or panelist in &gt;300 cases with respect to domain names.
	Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is also panelist at the Czech Arbitration Court (UDRP) and at the Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Centre (ADNDRC).
Experience with respect to IP related Mediation/Arbitration	Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf represented clients in court during litigation and before national and international courts of arbitration. Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf also served as a party-appointed arbitrator or as chairman of arbitral tribunals.
Membership in professional bodies	GRUR (German Association of Intellectual Property and Copyright Law)
	DGRI (German Society for Law and Information Technology)
	Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is a member of the "Information Security research group" at the University of Bremen / Bremen University of Applied Sciences